

Membership Form

The association's objectives are to constitute a forum for research, support and encouragement of (emerging) researchers, science policy, and scientific exchange (e.g., publications, conferences) in the field of educational research. The association intends to offer a platform to all people active in the field of educational research in Luxembourg and in the neighbouring countries as well as for European and international networks. This includes, among others, the organisation of conferences and workshops, the promotion of fundamental and applied research and the support of young scientists. The association is non-profit making.

The Luxembourg Educational Research Association asbl is a full member of the European Educational Research Association (EERA).

Membership procedure

Any adult natural person may become a member of the association. Any person expressing the wish to contribute to realising the objectives of the association may be admitted as a member upon addressing a written application to the governing board. The board will decide upon a membership application by simple majority.

Please complete the following membership form to request a LuxERA membership. This includes the membership request section (I), name and address section (II), and biographical and academic information section (III, IV). The Data Protection Information and the consent form are in Section V. Please send the completed form to the LuxERA governing board either by email to luxera@uni.lu or by postal mail to LuxERA governing board, c/o Ineke Pit-ten Cate, president; LuxERA, 11, Porte des Sciences (MSH), L-4366 Esch-sur-Alzette, Luxembourg.

The LuxERA board will discuss your application and - after officially approving it - send you information on the membership fee (confirmed each year in the general assembly).

Once you have transferred the annual membership fee to the LuxERA bank account, you will receive an official confirmation of your membership and your payment. From this date, you will receive all LuxERA mailings regarding LuxERA meetings and conferences as well as EERA information, ECER conferences, job opportunities etc.

In the following years, your membership fee is due by 1st February. Membership is only granted if the annual fee has been paid. We advise you to organise an automatic transfer procedure for the annual fee transfer to the LuxERA account.

If you wish to cancel your membership, please inform the Board by sending an email to luxera@uni.lu.
